FANS ARE BECOMING ENTHUSED OVER THE BASEBALL OUTLOOK

Harry A. Kiene, owner of the Newark baseball franchise, and who is in the city getting acquainted with the fans, has something up his sleeve that will make the boys. He has about completed arrangements with Bert Flinn, the famous catcher, who can peg a second with his eyes shut, to assist in getting a team together. That will be the envy of minor leaguedom.

Messrs. Kiene and Blue are quartered at the Warden and they spent the greater part of Tuesday and Wednesday in discussing plans and sending out a few contracts and arranging for those details which are necessary for the launching of a base ball team in Class C ball.

Newark is going to be heard from and the gentlemen interested are not going to leave a stone unturned to secure the best players available. The Newark bunch will be ordered to report about March 27 and will be given a thorough try out before the pruning knife starts to cut down the ranks.

Exhibition games have been arranged with Toledo, Columbus and Kalamazoo and several other top notchers. Warm dates, but Mr. Kiene is not going to book more dates than he can handle.

Mr. Kiene will visit the Board of Trade meeting Thursday night and will endeavor to interest that organization to the extent of helping boost the Newark team as he claims it will be one of the city's greatest assets. He is not asking for anything and merely wants the support of the fans which he will certainly get. He plans to place 1,000 books of twenty tickets each on sale, the books to be sold at $3 each and the tickets to be refundable so that they may be used on one day if desired by twenty different people or by one person in twenty days. From one to twenty tickets can go together and purchase about 12 if they wish. Mr. Kiene offers a deposit of $100 in any bank in return that he will carry out his end of the agreement and give the city a first class ball club. At the end of twenty days the season opens the fans are convinced that Newark has a good ball team. Owner Kiene says that they attend their own game and boost the same with all their might.

It takes money to run a ball club and Mr. Kiene has all the finances necessary. He is taking a chance with several thousand dollars to place a team in Newark. It may be a losing proposition but he has faith in Newark and believes that there is a bright future ahead for a fast club and he is willing to take that chance.

An idea of the expenses of a good team may be summed up by itemizing a few things required. A forfeit of $100 most positively be posted by January 15. Two sets of uniforms must be purchased at a cost of several hundred dollars more. Transportation must be furnished all players and their expenses paid during the training season. It will require at least a couple of hundred dollars to fix up the grounds and repair grand stand and benches. Salaries must be paid employees and manager as well as training captain. The first month's salary must be paid and it is usually a bad weather month. Thus it will be seen that it requires several thousand dollars to start in with this season.

Mr. Kiene is going to give the Newark club his undivided attention. He needs the support of the fans in helping to boost the club and make it one that will be right up at the top fighting all the time.

The Nancy Boyer show is going to give a small percentage of their Saturday night receipts to help boost the Newark team as all members of the Nancy show are true Newark boosters.

WATKINS READY TO BUILD PLANT

Spartanburg, O., Feb. 15.—W. H. Watkins, of Indianapolis, who is going to place a team here, the Ohio State League closed a lease on the land yesterday at it was required to purchase part of it to get possession. The land is situated at the end of North Murray street, and Mr. Watkins says the park will be ready for occupancy in 30 days. The Toledo club will play here on April 1 and 2, and the Columbus club on April 3 and 4. He will have the local players report at Indianapolis on March 17.

LYNCH WANTS TO JOIN ELKS

President Lynch has put in his application to join the Elks. "I have seen so much of my friend Harry Herrmann and his friends who are members of the order," said the league chief, "that I think I am doing a wise thing in joining it. Any body of men which contain so many good fellows as I know among the Elks is one that I will be proud to be associated with."

BASKETBALL.

Newark will send over basketball team to Coshocton, Friday night for a game against the Coshocton High school team. This is the first time this season that the Coshocton and Newark teams have met and inasmuch as there has always been rivalry in athletics between the two schools, the game promises to be an interesting one.

EZO MAKES FEET FEEL FINE.

Draws Out the Pain From Corns and Bunions. Soothes the Inflamed Skin.

If your feet are tender, get sore easily, burn and sting and keep you feeling miserable all the time, go to Evans' Drug Store—today, lay down 25 cents—say I want a jar of Ezo for the feet.

Then rub on Ezo and rub out agony. All pain will vanish like magic, and you'll have as good a pair of feet as anyone on earth. Ezo for the feet is a purified ointment that quickly soothes and heals all soreness wherever located. Be sure to use it to take the agony out of corns and bunions.

Besides Ezo for the feet we also make EZO REFINED OINTMENT, an unfailing remedy for chapped hands and face; for a delightful massage; for use after shaving, for red nose and for all diseases of the skin.

The price of Ezo Refined Ointment is 50 cents a jar but a trial treatment will be sent to any address on receipt of 4 cents in stamps to cover mailing. Ezo Chemical Co., Rochester, N. Y.

INDOOR MEET.

Granville, O., Feb. 15.—The annual indoor athletic meet between the Sophomores and Freshman classes was held in Cleveland Hall on Tuesday night and was won by the former, the score being 61 to 54. The meet was characterized by close races and record-breaking events. Five new records were made during the evening.

PRESS OF ENGLAND ROUSED BY TREATY.

London, Feb. 15.—Fear of ultimately losing Canada to the United States if the reciprocity treaty is ratified has aroused the press of England. Champ Clark's remark in his house yesterday that in time England would be glad to ratify this union has stirred things up here. The conservative press is up in arms and the papers which favor the treaty condemn Clark for his untimely remarks. Only a few take sides editorially, the rest waiting the story up bit and apparently awaiting developments.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of the proper food, together with natural action of the organs of assimilation. Nine people out of ten in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Samosa, the great flesh-forming food and health builder. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets, and see how your weight increases one week to week.

Samosa does not contain a particle of starch or pepsin, nor is it any nauseating preparation, such as is usually recommended to make people eat, and which does not build up good healthy tissues. Samosa has valuable flesh forming properties, tones up and strengthens the whole system, helps the food that is eaten to be assimilated in a natural manner, and absolutely restores health to all the organs.

If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Samosa, W. A. Ruman & Son will return your money without any quibbling.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

One of the prettiest events of the week was the Valentine party which later proved to also be an announcement party given by Miss Ethel Woodward on Tuesday evening at her home in West Church street.

The rooms were beautifully arranged with a profusion of hearts. Streamers of these festooned every conceivable space strands being hung from the chandelier to corners of the rooms while tiny Cupids were airily perched on the curtains and other draperies. In the dining room was placed a large table the center of which was filled with a bank of greenery and under this were placed the announcement cards. These were two hearts caught with a white arrow and held together by a ribbon in the hands of a Cupid. The hearts bore the names of Miss Ethel Woodward and Mr. Walter Frazier. The event was planned as a surprise and the bride to be was showered with congratulations.

Above the centerpiece was placed a canopy of hearts and Cupids, with streamer festoons.

The game of the evening was in harmony with the idea conveyed, being hearts. The souvenirs were awarded to Miss Besse Taafel and Miss Mildred Davies. A two course supper was then served.

The guests were Mrs. Ray Pierce of Shawnee, Mrs. Charles Flory, Mrs. Bernard Wingerter, Mrs. Louis Meyers, Misses Mabel Jones, Pearl Mercer, Marian Hatch, Bernice Hatch, Spray Douce, Gladys Beecher, Lillian Miller, Rhea Ingler, Lillian Kammerer, Emma Kammerer, Helen Redman, Besse Taafel, Sue Taafel, Dot Woodward, Lillian Rugg, Mary Louise Rank, Mildred Davies, Hazel McMullen, Jesse Sweeting, Amy Alspach, Helen Pigg, and Kate Vance.

The wedding will take place some time this month. Mr. Frazier is engaged in the stock buying business with his father, near Frazeyburg and is a graduate of Duane Academy and was a student up to his junior year in Denison University. Miss Woodward is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Woodward of West Church street. She graduated from Newark High school with the class of 1907 and has since been connected with the American Tribune being society editor. Miss Woodward is a young woman of delightful personality and her acquaintances and friends are of large numbers.

The Knights Templar danced in Assembly Hall on Tuesday evening. Stevens' orchestra furnished most delightful dance music and a supper was served in the balcony at 11 o'clock.

The following were the dancers: Messrs. and Mesdames W. W. Davis, F. W. Elliott, J. L. Worth, M. J. Reese, J. F. Cherry, George D. Orr, C. L. V. Holtz, Frank Hirst, Fred Speer, Hugh Oatman, Henry Pfeffer, H. H. Harris, Ben B. Jones, U. O. Stevens, F. E. Fox, W. C. Collins, Frank Felty, W. H. Mazy, E. E. Moore, W. E. Miller, J. V. Hilliard, George Hermann.

Misses Anna Orr, Olive Howard, Edna Wright, Mary Englander, Mrs. John Rosebraugh, Mrs. Al Rosebraugh, Mrs. J. D. Elliott, Mrs. Frank Bolton, Messrs. Henry Siegel, E. H. Metz, Ernest Grill, Jr., Lee Moore, L. H. Kelley, Warren Suter, W. F. Upson, and Miss Mary Morath of Boulder, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sherrick and Miss Mae Justine and Edward Peersall of Utica, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kier and F. S. Robinson.

Miss Clifford Dawson of Cambridge entertained with a family dinner in honor of her cousin, Miss Sclordia Baughman of this city. Covers were laid for ten guests and an elegant four course dinner was served.

Mrs. Bernard Simson will be hostess to the Point Eucire club Monday, February 20 at her home in Ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dawson at their home on Dewey avenue, entertained Sunday with a dinner at one o'clock, honoring their house guest, Miss Florida Baughman of Newark. Covers were laid for ten and an elaborate four-course dinner was served by the hostess.—Cambridge Jeffersonian.

Mrs. Joseph Moser proved a very charming hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertained the No Name Pedro club at her home in Mahalan street. Festoons of red hearts decorated the rooms, and dainty valentines were given as favors. Besides the club game, the prizes of which were awarded Mrs. Rhoda Anderson and Mrs. G. W. Martin, a guessing contest was indulged in. Mrs. Charles Gummer being the lucky member, after which a dainty lunch was served the members. Guest, Mrs. W. F. Fulton. The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. W. Martin of Highland avenue on February 28.

The Busy Bee Embroidery club met at the home of Miss Elsie McWilliam Friday afternoon. Those present were: Misses Pearl and Bernice Blaine, Lou Marple, Maude and Eltha Welles, May Anderson, Bernice Marple, Edith Stone, Viva and Gertrude Price. While sewing, the society was favored with some beautiful piano selections by Miss May Anderson and Miss Gertrude Price. The club will meet with Miss Anderson in two weeks.

The Tuesday Euchre club was entertained on the club day of this week by Mrs. Eliza Symons at her apartments in the Avalon. The afternoon was spent with the progressive game and the souvenirs were awarded Mrs. D. W. Matticks and Mrs. Eliza Symons.

A dainty repast was served by the hostess to the members and the following guests Mrs. Fordyce, Mrs. Chris Hermann, Miss Romaine Stanberry and Miss Jessie King.

Mrs. Frank Merion most delightfully entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge club at her apartments in the Henrietta on Tuesday afternoon. At the conclusion of the game the club trophies were received by Mrs. Ralph Wyeth and Mrs. Edwin Besuden while Mrs. H. H. Scott received the guest's favor.

The guests of the club were Mrs. Kennaday, Mrs. A. H. Pierson, Mrs. Walter Ferguson, Mrs. C. W. Montgomery, Mrs. Fenwick Ewing, Mrs. Frank Bolton, Mrs. Daniel Altshool, Mrs. J. J. Carroll, and Mrs. H. H. Scott.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Neal in North Fifth street.

Miss Margaret Stewart was the victim of a most successful surprise party perpetrated by the members of the south division of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Stewart is president of this division and Sunday was the anniversary of her birth. On Monday evening forty of the members of the division went to her home in West Church street to spend the evening. Most of the self-invited guests wore masks and the surprise was most complete.

The evening was informally spent and delicious refreshments were served. The company presented Miss Stewart with a beautiful slumber robe as a token of remembrance.

Mrs. Alda Scott and her daughter, Miss Clara Scott, entertained with a family party on Tuesday evening at their home in Church street. The evening was spent informally and a dainty luncheon was served.

Miss Rosetta Evans entertained informally on Tuesday evening with a Valentine party at her home in Pearl street. The rooms were arranged with a profusion of hearts and cards furnished entertainment for the evening.

A three-course supper was served the following guests. Misses Edna Wazenheim, Helen Ingman, Ruth Henderson, Rosetta Evans, Messrs. Harry Kean, Ray Wintermute, Harold Welsh and Nelson Metz.

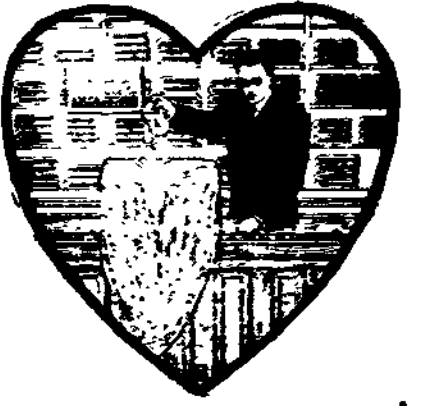

The following formed a theatre party at the Auditorium theatre on Tuesday evening. Miss Ethel Franklin, Marie Hofner, Anna Hoffert, Punch Trist, Florence Butler, Hazel Kirk and Miss Enid Anderson of Alexandria.

Confessions of a Young Housekeeper
by Barbara Boyd

A Housekeeper's Afternoons.

THE business woman often envies the housekeeper her afternoons, for these, the business woman avers, the housekeeper has for herself, and she can rest or go to matinees or card parties or lectures or whatever she pleases. That her afternoons are not always rounds of pleasure every housekeeper knows. Still there is a thought in what the business woman says worth a housekeeper's attention.

Philosophers tell us there are compensations in everything, and the housekeeper who thinks her work monotonous and not worth while should study this matter of her afternoons, and perhaps she will find this law of compensation at work ready to bring her a good of which she has not thought.

With many housekeepers some afternoons in the week must be given over to sewing and mending and other work that cannot be accomplished in the morning. But at least one or two afternoons a week a housekeeper can and should reserve for herself.

What shall she do with them? Aimlessly wander through the shops? Call on some friend and spend the time gossiping? Shopping and calling have their places, but is it wise to spend all of one's spare time in this way? Do not these spare afternoons that are a housekeeper's come, through this law of compensation, for a purpose?

The housekeeper's work is largely done alone and it is not work that is apt to keep one alive mentally. It is more or less a routine, more or less mechanical after it has been thought out. It requires brain work, but brain work in its own line. Because it is done alone where there is not much touch with other interests, and because its mentality follows one course, a woman will not develop symmetrically unless she deliberately places herself in touch with other things. Her afternoons give her the time for this, and thus she can keep in step with her sister workers in the world, if she will.

A woman should lay up for her future not only money but interests. She needs to look to the future and to prepare for it. And the housekeeper who plots along filling her days solely with her housekeeping work will come to a barren and empty old age. She will be out of touch with things, she will have nothing in herself to enjoy or to attract others. This is not a wise policy to pursue. She should take these afternoons which come to her as a compensation for the kind of work she does, and she should so invest them as to yield both a present and future harvest of enjoyment. She should get some pleasure from them now, so that the occasional card party or gossip or matinee is not to be decied. But she should see to it that they are also used to keep her in touch with the world's affairs and to store up interests and happiness for tomorrow.

HOW

I Was Cured of Malaria

"I was for over five years troubled with Malarial Fever. It would almost always come on in the Spring and would bother me for the remainder of the summer. I tried different medicines, but they did not seem to help me. I also had the doctor off and on for some time but the next year I would be troubled just the same and I would have to be at home for several weeks. I would be in bed one day and have chills and a heavy fever, and the next day I would be up about the house, and this is the way I would be for several weeks each summer.

I finally decided to try some good blood medicine, so I began taking Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and found it did me lots of good. I began taking it early in the spring and continued taking it all through the summer. I found, after taking a few bottles, that my body was covered with pimples, and it seemed to drive all the humor out of my blood. After that I felt much better, and now I am just as healthy as ever I was, and I am never troubled with Malarial Fever."—George P. Strong, 35 Groveland Street, Lynn, Mass. Thousands of people believe in

Pinkham's Blood Purifier

Malaria is caused by a parasite which gets into the blood, and unless the blood is in a healthy condition and has normal resisting properties, they attack and destroy the red corpuscles, and so seriously impair the general health.

Chills and fever are the most marked symptoms of Malaria, which can be cured by purifying and enriching the blood. Mr. Strong found that Pinkham's Blood Purifier cured him after all other means had failed, and what it did for Mr. Strong it will do for other sufferers.

AMUSEMENTS

Last Night's Play.

"The Prima Donna" was the offering of the Nancy Boyer Stock company at the Auditorium theatre last night. The play is a delightful drama and offers many possibilities for clever acting. The lines are good and at no time drag. Miss Boyer played the part of the prima donna.

To Mr. Edward Barton is due the greatest of praise for his exceptionally good work in last night's production. Mr. Barton is at all times clever in character work, but last night surpassed any of his previous efforts when he assumed the role of a degenerate old man who becomes an opium fiend. In the third act his acting brought forth several curtain calls.

The supporting company assumed their roles nicely and the play was pleasing.

Nancy Boyer Stock Co.

A young man employed in the United States treasury at Washington, D. C., has, by careful manipulation, succeeded in collecting enough pieces off the different mutilated bills that come in for redemption to form another $100 bill. He steals it and is discovered by a young lady working in the same department and is warned that the secret service men are on his track. However, he pays no heed to her friendly warning and passes the bill. The little lady sees that her friend is about to be apprehended and in order to save him from disgrace and to spare his invalid mother's life, she procures herself to tell how she is eventually acquitted. The young man is saved from disgrace and eventually marries his redeemer. Nancy is the little gray lady and Mr. Chatterton is the young man. The Prima Donna is underlined for the Thursday matinee, and Leah Kleschna Friday night.

The Rosary.

Founded upon an emblem of purity and full of human interest that goes straight to the heart, "The Rosary," a new play by Ed. E. Ross, has made a most favorable impression. The production is a new one, and Rowland Clifford have given it a magnificent staging.

Every member is so well played that there is not the slightest jarring of any part in the play and the result is a perfect rendition.

In Rev. Brian Kelly, played by Harrington Reynolds, theatre goes witness one of the best portrayals of this nature that ever has been seen on the stage. Mr. Reynolds is forceful, sympathetic and impressive, and gives just the right touch of realism to the character. "The Rosary" has just completed a most successful three months run in Chicago and is now playing at the Garden theatre in New York city and will be presented at the Auditorium theatre on Wednesday, Feb. 22, matinee and night.

The Wolf.

"The Wolf," which comes to the Auditorium theatre Saturday, Feb. 25, matinee and night, tells of the temptation that comes to a girl whose life has been all too barren of joy, owing to the harshness of a narrow-minded father. The girl is good and sweet all through, however, and her innate purity enables her to judge rightly.

The old father, with the cast iron ideas of right and wrong, has almost crushed the spirit out of the poor little daughter. Temptation comes to her when she learns, for the first time in her life, that the world is full of beautiful things and the woman's natural craving for pretty things awakens in her.

Of love at first she knows nothing, but when she learns the wonderful lesson, she unfolds it as a flower to the sun.

The harshness of that old father ought to be a lesson to many a father. It will show them that if you want young girls to grow into pretty women, you must let the sunlight in to their lives.

The Blue Mouse.

Clyde Fitch, the playwright, has turned naturalist. While in Germany he captured a mischievous but somewhat soiled mouse. The habits of this strange yet amusing rodent were none too good, but when once in New York, Mr. Fitch scrubbed the tiny beast, when, behold, it came a delicate blue. With the blue light as protection, the little mouse has so changed and now is a beautiful

"Blue Mouse," E. J. Carpenter will exhibit him as the purest example of an A. No. 1 1910-11 sensation. It is this "Blue Mouse," harmless but exuberantly funny, that comes to the Auditorium theatre on Monday, Feb. 27, when that dainty little actress, Wanda Ludlow, will be seen as the same "Blue Mouse," for one must have already guessed that a rodent can't act. As a matter of fact, there are no mice—not even a mouse—in the company, for ladies are present.

The Orpheum.

Manager Bassett is to be commended for the high class acts which he is furnishing the patrons of the Orpheum theatre. The bill this week is one that will appeal to every amusement lover in the city, and it should be seen before the engagement closes, as there are several novelty acts which are more than worth while.

Gordon Brothers and their boxing kangaroo are something out of the ordinary. That a kangaroo should stand up in a regulation ring and box a three-round fight is almost beyond belief, but it is a fact, nevertheless. He wallops body blows, uppercuts and sideswipes with the skill of a professional and is more than clever in ducking punishment himself. He will stand on his tail, kick in the clinches, and take a delight in trying to put his sparring partner out of business. The Gordon boys also do a very creditable bag punching stunt and their act in connection with the fighting kangaroo is way above the ordinary.

Edythe Doyle has a charming soprano voice that is pleasing her audiences daily. She is also a clever pianist and is receiving her share of encores. The Modernists in Spanish singing and dancing do a pretty turn that is more than appreciated. The cavalier or male member of the team has an excellent voice and is very graceful in his intricate delineation of the national dance of the Spanish nation. The lady who assists him has a fine stage presence, a sweet voice and her dances are all graceful. Her castanet dance is making quite a hit and the team is more than deserving of the encores they receive.

The Musical Comedy Four is the one big laugh producer that is helping to pack the pretty Arcade theatre at all performances. Don't overlook this bill, as it is a high class one well worth your patronage. You will get your money's worth several times over. The Orpheumscope pictures are excellent.

Mother and Daughter

Both Glad to Recommend Parisian Sage, the Guaranteed Hair Grower and Dandruff Cure.

Mrs. J. R. Burgess writes from 314 Plum St., Danville, Va., June 4, 1910, as follows:

"I have used Parisian Sage and find it to be all you claim for it, and cheerfully recommend it to any one who is suffering from any hair dandruff, or scalp trouble."

On the same date, Ruth Odille Burgess, the charming little daughter of Mrs. Burgess wrote:

"I am only a little girl, but I want to tell what Parisian Sage has done for me. I had a scalp disease that looked like dandruff and when it was combed up there would be a bloody water under the dandruff. My mother tried everything in the way of hair tonics, without results, until she saw the advertisement of Parisian Sage; she got a bottle and it cured me, but kept on using it. Now I have as beautiful a head of hair as any girl."

Men, women and children, in every section of America who are using ordinary commercial hair tonics should give Parisian Sage a trial. It is so far ahead of all others that one application will prove its great superiority.

It is guaranteed by Evans' drug store to stop falling hair and itching scalp, and to drive out all dandruff in two weeks or money back. It grows hair in abundance and gives to the hair a lustrous and fascinating appearance. 50 cents a large bottle at Evans' drug store, and druggists everywhere.

An Alleged Drowning

Stockton, Feb. 15.—Coroner Foster was a bit worried today to investigate a report that drowned Fred Joroner had been found last night two miles from the city. It was said that the body was found in a small stream and was so badly decomposed that it was impossible to identify it.

Children on the Stage.

What is expected to prove the most colossal entertainment ever given in America is that now being arranged by the National Alliance for the Protection of Stage Children. It will take place on the afternoon of Monday, Feb. 27, and some idea of its magnitude may be gained from the statement that the program will require fully five hours in consummation, starting at 1 p. m. The directors of the Metropolitan opera house in New York have donated that colossal theatre and it is here that the performance will be given. The executive committee of the Alliance, which consists of George C. Tyler, managing director of Lieber & Co., chairman; Marc Klaw, Daniel Frohman and Charles Frohman, is now busily engaged on the work of arranging the bill, for which the most prominent actors, operatic artists and musicians in the country have volunteered their services.

As every theatre-goer knows, child actors and actresses—children of the stage—are necessary in the presentation of certain plays. "The Blue Bird," "Tip Van Winkle," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Little Lord Fauntleroy," to mention a very few which have charmed countless patrons of the drama, could hardly be given without them. It is from sources such as these that the stage owes Maude Adams, Julia Marlowe, Annie Russell, Elsie Leslie, Mabel Collier, Henry E. Dwyer, Joseph Jefferson's Sons, Wallace Edinger and others. Where state laws arbitrarily prohibit the appearance on the stage of children, the latter are debarred opportunity of learning the rudiments of the dramatic profession. Not only this, but there is lost to playgoers many plays impossible of production without the services of juvenile actors. No fault can be found with the laws of New York in this respect, the licensing power being vested in the mayors of the various cities. Many other states, however, handle the matter in a far less liberal way as traveling theatrical managers have for years found to their cost. The states of Massachusetts, Illinois and Louisiana, which contain the big cities of Boston, Chicago and New Orleans, have laws which are particularly drastic, as they absolutely bar children under 16 years of age from appearing in theatrical performances. It is well understood that these laws were drafted with children of the factory and the mill in mind. Nevertheless, though their sponsors perhaps did not so intend it, they operate directly against the stage children.

As a matter of actual fact, no children anywhere are so well cared for, and watched over as the youngsters back of the footlights. Every stage hand or "grip" becomes at once their champion; every stage manager, stage doorman, their loyal friend. Nothing in the least objectionable ever reaches their eyes or ears. Coupled with this, they are invariably accompanied by some older person and their work, if work it can be called, occupies a scant two and a half hour, at the most, and usually but a few minutes.

The receipts of the monster benefit are to be utilized in enlightening the public upon the hardship which the laws of certain states unwittingly work against children of the stage, and against art, in the hope that steps may be taken for their repeal or modification. The National Alliance for the Protection of Stage Children feels that this matter is one of the most important in connection with our theatre.

The general committee of the Alliance contains such well known names as Augustus Thomas, Rev. Thomas C. Slicer, Prof. William Lyons Phelps, John W. Alexander, Rev. Percy S. Grant, Daniel Frohman, Henry B. Harris, Percy Mackaye, Levi Mayer, Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin, Julia Marlowe, Hamlin Garland, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Francis Wilson, Winthrop Ames, Mrs. Edith Kelly, Furness, Mary Shaw, F. E. Mackay and Annie Russell.

RUN-DOWN CONDITIONS

Their Cause and Effect.

Run-down conditions are caused by a lack of iron in the blood and mal-assimilation of food. If you are one of the unfortunates who have drifted into this state, change your diet, eat foods that are rich in mineral elements of nutrition, and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil), which supplies iron to the blood in the most easily assimilated form.

A case is reported from Mattoon, Ill.—Mrs. O. M. Watrous was in very poor health for years. She was weak, all run-down, no appetite, and only weighed ninety-seven pounds. She had doctor for a long time without benefit. Vinol was recommended. She tried it, and in less than a year she was in perfect health and weighed 127 pounds.

Vinol creates an appetite, re-establishes perfect digestion and makes good, pure blood. In this natural manner it builds up the run-down, weak and debilitated, and replaces weakness with strength.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. F. D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

FINE PROGRAM
RENDERED AT THE GEOLOGICAL MEET

Productions Interesting and Instructive—News of Granville and Vicinity.

Granville, Feb. 15.—There was a splendid attendance at the last meeting of the C. L. Herrick Geological Society, and a most interesting program was carried out. An exceedingly interesting biography of Le Conte, the celebrated geologist, was given by Miss Richards, while Miss Jones read a very interesting paper on "Diamonds." "The Bearing of Geology on Soils" was the subject of a most instructive paper by Mr. Fleener, while "Buried Cities of Asia Minor" was the subject of a talk by Mr. Reed. All the productions were very interesting as well as instructive.

That athletics are attracting more than ordinary attention in Denison just now is evidenced by the fact that a petition is being circulated among the students asking that the sum of $2 be added to the semester fee of each male student, the sum to be appropriated to athletics. This means that the athletics of Denison will not be handicapped in equipment, and that Denison will be better represented, and that more enthusiasm will take hold of the students.

At a meeting of the Board of Athletic Control of Denison University, the track schedule, as presented by Manager Neyman was approved by the board, and is as follows: April 29, Ohio Wesleyan at Granville. May 6, Miami at Granville. May 13, Wooster at Wooster. May 20, Ohio University at Athens. May 26, Big Six Meet at Columbus. June 3, Otterbein at Westerville.

The Board of Athletic control, upon recommendation of the coach, has awarded the football D to H. E. Wickenden. Edson C. Rupp of the class of '12, has been elected captain of the 1911 football team.

Mrs. L. M. Farnworth of Hartford was called here a few days ago by the serious illness of her aunt, Mrs. Cada, who has been in very poor health for some time.

A beautiful sight is Venus, out in the sunset skies, on a clear evening. There is nothing in all the universe so spiritually bright as Venus. This queen of love and beauty is the personification of purity. One cannot imagine a stain on her bright soul as it gleams through the fading sunlight in the western sky. If one gazes at that fair object for two minutes he will feel the very presence in his life, and it will make his thoughts happier and true. Don't forget to look for this beautiful star in the western sky just after the sun has gone down.

MODERN HAIR DRESSING has played havoc with the tresses of the fair sex, and druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making the old-fashioned "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rashes and irritations. This preparation, which is called Wreth's Sage and Sulphur, is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by F. D. Hall, druggist.

Mr. Charles McClary of Kansas City Pays His Respects to Ohio's Governor and U. S. Senator.

Mr. Charles McClary of Kansas City, Mo., who has been visiting friends and relatives in Newark, Columbus and Zanesville for the past week, leaves tonight over the B. & O. for Chicago, where he will attend a builders' convention Thursday and Friday. Mr. McClary left this city 32 years ago today and has made his home in Kansas City ever since and has been a building contractor for the past 29 years, in which business he has been successful, and is at this time one of the leading contractors of that busy city. Mr. McClary was the guest of Senator W. E. Miller yesterday and they spent the day in Columbus, the senator introducing him to Governor Harmon, U. S. Senator Pomerene, Senator Geo. D. Long, and were both the guests of Senator Haas, who took great pleasure in entertaining his predecessor and guest. Mr. McClary is a Republican, and in conversation with Governor Harmon told him that there were two Democrats for whom he had the highest admiration and he hoped that he might have the pleasure of voting for either for president. They were Governor Harmon and Champ Clark. The governor's answer was: "There is no better American citizen than Mr. Clark." Mr. McClary has many friends in Newark and he certainly enjoyed meeting them and is pleased with the improvement of his old home city.

All Our Work is Guaranteed

We have been Guaranteeing our Dental Work from the time we started in business, years ago. We do our work so thoroughly and with such care for every little detail, that we very seldom have work return. The best way to judge of our work is to ask some of our patients. You'll find plenty of them among your own friends.

The Business Man's First Need

The expert business man always deposits every cent he takes in, and checks out every cent he expends. Why?

Because he knows from experience that the cancelled check he receives from the bank is the best receipt he can have; he also lessens the chances of loss by robbery, or errors in paying cash. Other reasons of course.

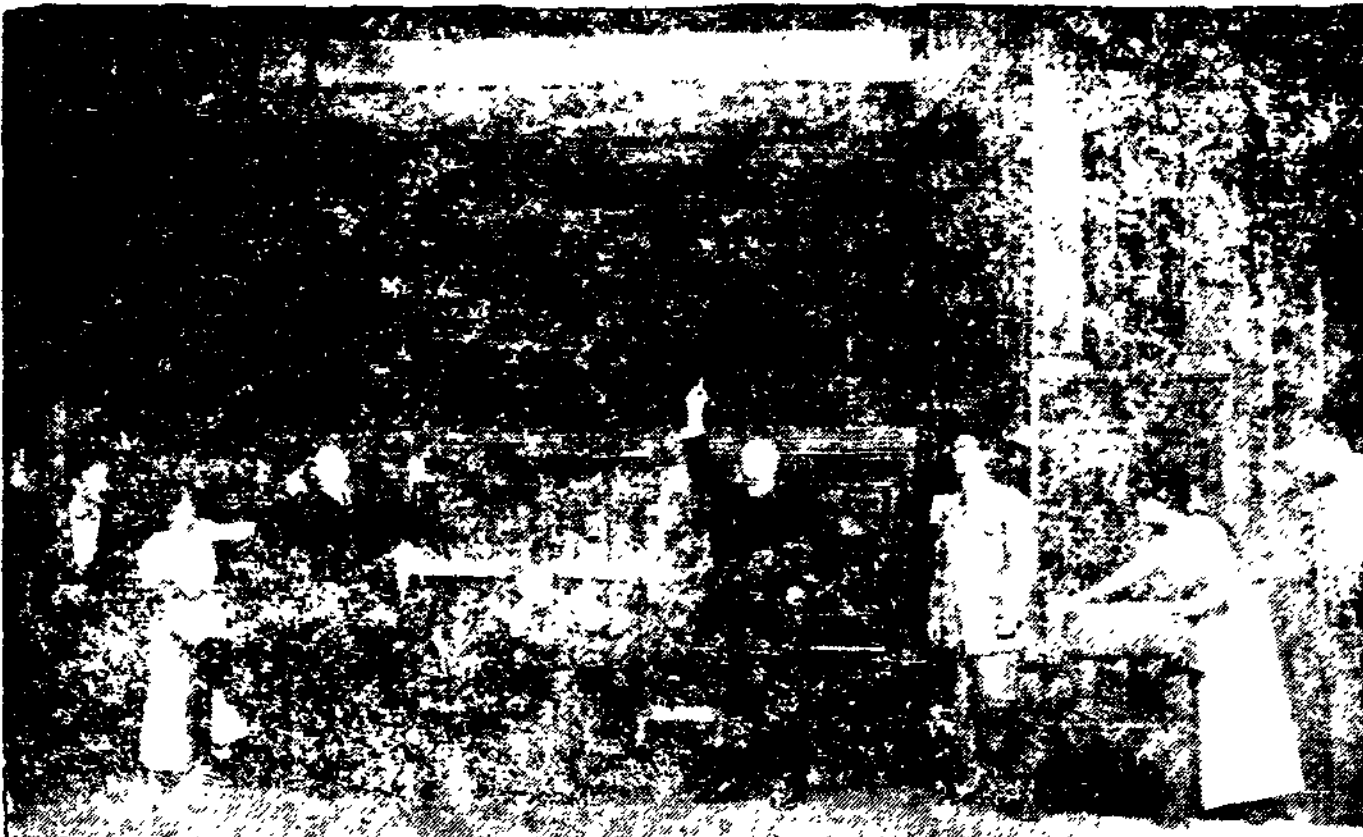

Are you an expert business man?
